

The DELE Preparation Courses

對外西班牙語水平證書預備課程

Course Description:

Spanish (español) is a Romance language that originated in Spain and now has more native speakers worldwide than any language other than Chinese. The Diplomas de Español como Lengua Extranjera (DELE) diploma is an official certificate with an international reputation which certifies a certain level of competence in using the Spanish language with reference to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

The Instituto Cervantes awards the DELE diplomas on behalf of the Spanish Ministry of Education and Science. They are recognized worldwide by private companies, chambers of commerce and public and private educational systems. The levels that the candidates can prepare for with the courses offered by the Centre for Lifelong Learning are two levels (A1 and A2/B1) for students between 10-17 years old.

DELE A1

The DELE A1 is the first of the six levels proposed by the European Framework of Reference for Teaching, Learning and Assessing Languages, and certifies that the candidate is able to satisfy immediate needs related to concrete and foreseen daily situations.

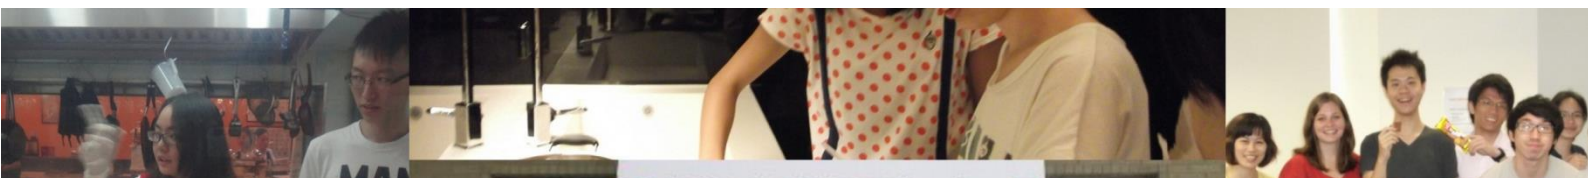

DELE A2/B1

This level certifies that the candidate is able to cover social needs, be more active in social interactions, describe present and past experiences and express desires and needs.

The course will have an intensive and flexible learning format. The sessions will be divided in modules, and each of them will deal with one of the specific sections of the DELE Exams as follows:

1. Reading Comprehension
2. Written Expression
3. Oral Comprehension
4. Oral Interview

In addition, the course will include a complete mock exam, and the students will receive individual feedback.
