

Telephone Deception Trilogy by "Pretending Officials"

Pretending
Officials
Scam Call

Hang up
Hang up
Hang up

1
Pre-recorded voice calls
Victims receive pre-recorded voice calls from scammers posing as couriers, banks, government departments or other organizations.

2
Alleging that victims were involved in criminal cases
The call then forward to another scammer impersonating a mainland law enforcement officer.

3
Manipulating online banking accounts and transferring all the money out
Scammers will request the victims to download mobile applications or visit fraudulent websites and input their online banking information. Eventually, the victims' banking accounts will be emptied.

ADCC
Anti-Deception Coordination Centre
反詐騙協調中心

WHEN
IN DOUBT
CALL 18222

Visit this website to learn more!
www.adcc.gov.hk

Report Scams

Hong Kong Police Force E-Report Centre : https://www.police.gov.hk/ppp\_en/

"Anti-Scam Helpline 18222"

- An all-day enquiry hotline to provide immediate consultation for the general public in order to handle suspicious deception cases in a more effective manner

Anti-Deception Coordination Centre (ADCC)

Website: <https://adcc.gov.hk>

- Provide up-to-date information on defrauding tricks
- Subscribe to "Scam Alert" email notification

"Scameter", the one-stop search engine for frauds:

Website: <https://cyberdefender.hk/scameter>

- Help the public identify frauds and online pitfalls.
- Assess the risk of fraud and cyber security by entering the platform account name or number, payment account, phone number, email address, URL, etc.

"CyberDefender", the one-stop cyber information platform:

Website: <https://cyberdefender.hk>

- Provide up-to-date cyber security tips and anti-fraud information