YANIV (俊基實業) Social Work Fieldwork Award 2023/24

Regulations

The 'YANIV (俊基實業) Social Work Fieldwork Award' is supported by the title sponsorship granted by YANIV. The sponsorship has allowed the College to set up one award in year 2023/24 to encourage students of the part-time mode of the Associate of Social Science in Social Work Programme to commit in full-time block placement in their fieldwork practicum. The following regulations shall apply for the academic year 2023/2024:

1. The Award shall be known as 'YANIV (俊基實業) Social Work Fieldwork Award'.
2. There shall be ONE awards in maximum. The value of the award is HK$12,500.
3. The Award shall be granted to student who is studying in the Associate of Social Science in Social Work, part-time mode, and who:
 - has enrolled in fieldwork courses;
 - has attained satisfactory standards of academic performance;
 - has achieved a B+ or above in Fieldwork I;
 - has made contribution to the active learning of fellow classmates and/or serving disadvantaged communities; and
 - needs to quit his/her current employment for taking up full-time block placement with proven financial needs.
4. Nominations from the Faculty of Social Sciences shall reach the UOW College Hong Kong by 31 August 2024 and the award shall be made as soon as possible.
5. The UOW College Hong Kong shall then request the donor to select the awardees from the nominations.
6. Confirmation will be sought from the donor by June of each year on whether or not the awards are to be continued for the respective academic year.
