

Summer Study Tour @ Okinawa

Thirty participants from Associate of Science and Associate of Science in Environmental Studies learned about the contributions of academic researches to the sustainability of the world, as well as the natural and cultural conservation treasures in Okinawa.

Cutting-Edge
Research

